1. If you were a bystander in the crowd in any of these stories, what would you be thinking?

2. How does vs. 21 set the stage for verse 22-56?

3. What are some similarities and differences in these three blocks of passages?

4. Why did Luke organize the stories in this particular order? What was Luke trying to emphasize?

5. After reading these consecutive stories, does this change your perspective of Jesus?

6. How would you teach these truths found in these passages to a young child?

7. What is your resolution after reading this passage in the context of your home, the church, and 2021?
