SERMON NOTES-PASTOR JUSTIN WONG

Romans 8: 28 - 30 (ESV)

1. What does Paul mean by those who “love God” in verse 28?
Can this be stretched to a universal sense or limited to something else?
2. Why is there such comfort in knowing that God will use “all things” for good?
What does this reveal about his character and nature?
3. Share a time in your life where you seriously (or are seriously) doubting God’s goodness and his plans for good?
4. Why does Paul consider God’s foreknowledge and predestination as sources of hope for the believer?
5. What portion of this passage is foreign in your theology or at least difficult to understand?
6. According to the passage, what is the golden chain of salvation?
